Pedras is a simple Algarvian style village set in lovely well maintained grounds. The accommodation is simple yet stylish (Whitewashed interior with terracotta tiles) and contains all you will need for a fantastic holiday - (with the possible exception of Air Conditioning). Set about 5 mins walk from the town of Cabanas it has a great pool, a restaurant, snack bar and a supermarket on-site. The town of Cabanas is sleepy - not for the teeny boppers but great for a quiet, relaxed, kick back holiday. Loads of restaurants, from the fancy to the modest Mamas and Pappas type and fantastic value in both wine and food. If you don't love fish you will be a little disappointed as the steaks are better suited to shoe mending than the gourmet dining experience. The highlight of this resort is the unique beach which is accessed by free boat and adds a desert island experience to the holiday. The sand is so clean and the water has a Blue Flag. Get into the slow lane of life and leave the hassled rush and dash behind when you stay in Pedras, Cabanas.
